

How to connect to Palace Chat V4

{ A basic tutorial on how to connect and use the Palace Chat program

Your startup screen will look like this, notice the top. You will see file, edit, view, history, bookmarks, tools and help. We will explain all of those. You will also see arrows, people, doors a blue ball, music notes, a paint palate, another door and a sign. We will explain one at a time.

From this page you will be automatically taken to a default palace.

When you first connect you will see a screen like this. You will notice people called avs and just colored balls This is the starting point of palace. So far so good

From this screen the first thing you will want to do is look at the blue globe at the top of the tool bar. That is the directory and a list of the palaces

This is the toolbar. Notice the blue globe. Click it

Go to the category options and click. You will be given a choice of which type of palace you enter.

Name	Category	Language	Users
 ChatAmor www.chatamor.com	Adults	Spanish	31
 leparadisdange http://leparadisdange.epalaces.com	Adults	French	22
 ~Vivencias~	Adults	Spanish	10
 Gypsy Charms	Adults		9

Once you click the directory, you will notice a series of names of palaces and what is in them. They all have descriptions. Show an approximate number of who is there and what type, adult, teens, type of adult palace. Highlight one and click it.

When you enter a palace, you will notice a welcome sign of the palace with some instructions. At this point you still look like a gummy ball but that will change soon

Most palaces have a place that says enter like above. Merely click on one

This is what the room lists looks like. The best way to start into a palace is to read the rules room and look for gate. Most homes would prefer you come to a gate before roaming

When you enter someone's home you will notice names and perhaps chat bubbles

You should see off to the side a chat box. This is where you conversations will appear

If you don't see the chat box on the screen no problem. Go up to your toolbar to tools and scroll to log, then click it and presto the box appears

Users: 4/4

type what you want to say here|

At the bottom of the picture is a long box. That is where you type what you want to say.

Well folks to this point you've done awesome. But we need a name for you. Go to the upper far right of your screen and you will see two gear wheels. Click it and this box will pop up saying general in the first tab

Where is says user name, give yourself one then click close

Since we are in this box go ahead and type a profile anything you like

If you want you can change your chat bubble by clicking the tab and just change the color at the prompts. At this point click close on the bottom and you are done. The other tabs are for when you are ready to advance.

At this point only one small detail remains.
You need an av.

To this point you look like a ball

People may offer you avs or they may tell you where to look for them. Here is how to put one on.

To put on an av right click on the figure. A box pops up like this. Click take and wear. You know have an av on. To put one in your prop bag simple click take prop and presto its saved in your bag.

To save your av and see if you have it go to tools, click prop window.

This is what is called your prop bag. All props are saved here. You can add any category you wish. Simply click add and a box will highlight on the left. Simply type the name of your category and start saving avs

We palace user those are the basics to get you started. As you learn and grow, many more functions can be used through the program and any of the wonderful folks at Storm Hosting Palace can answer your questions. Please have fun with your palace experience.
